Both Olsburg and Walsburg are in the midst of a six month process called "Standing at the CrossRoads." Last month (in April), a group from each congregation traveled to Salina for a day of learning, listening, study and discovery. One of the things we were reminded of, is that a congregation is like a living organism in that it goes through times of growth, rest, and decline over and over again. This is normal and, we have a tendency to focus on programs and administration which are not bad things, but mission and relationships are what really make the difference. This month, we gathered at Walsburg for an online "web" conference for an hour last week. We are focusing this month on the "peaks and valleys" which each of these congregations have gone through over the past 100 or so years, in relation to what was happening in the surrounding community and in the world.

WE NEED YOUR HELP – Please take some time in the week ahead, to share some of your memories and stories about your time at Olsburg or Walsburg. Who was the pastor and how did the leadership seem to function. Were there things going on "behind the scenes?" What could have been different? Remember, this exercise is not only about the good and happy things, but also about the struggles and challenges.

Another thing that would be helpful in this exercise is to know how you came to this congregation. Fewer and fewer have been born and baptized in the church they still attend, and the stories of how you became a part of the congregation are important. Include your impressions and feelings as you entered into a "new" church community.

Remember, things that were going on in the surrounding community as well as in the world are important to this exercise. Also, names are important in telling stories and making connections, but any challenging information will have the names changed. Our goal is to shape an understanding.

What follows is a snapshot of your assignment: Have a conversation, write a note or e-mail your church memories to Pastor Gordy or Pastor Sonja.

What is your memory at a particular time (good or bad)?

How were you connected to the church?

What was happening in the world at that time? Please name the decade in which this happened.

For the more ambitious: Create a decade timeline according to your life.

During each decade name both a highlight (good and bad) in the church and a highlight (good and bad) in the community / world.

The leadership team will compile the stories to help us better understand our history and how that influences the future mission.

Thanks for helping with this project!
Blessings and Hope
Gordy & Sonja

Summer Seminary

As the Spring Semester comes to a close, the Sandquist are busy finishing up papers and finals. There is a slight break between Spring Semester and Summer Intensive, but not much.

Sonja will be engaged with two classes and one training event this summer:

Contemporary Issues in Children, Youth and Family (CYF) Ministry: This is a directed reading/seminar collaboration course. Each year a contemporary topic in the area of Children, Youth, and Family ministry is chosen. Students will then read from the bibliography associated with that topic. They then meet in plenary session at predetermined times during the term with a faculty member who helps them to teach each other what they have learned about a specific challenge and seek insight from each other, as well as other outside resources as applicable, in meeting the identified challenge.

Worship: With the aim of preparing competent evangelical leaders of public worship, the course combines shared worship experience, as well as reflection on that experience, drawing on the broad range of Christian worship theologies and practices. Through consideration of biblical foundations, theological development, and historic and contemporary practice, students achieve well-grounded understanding for guiding parish practice.

Crossways Bible System Training: The goal of Crossways International is "to help people read the written Word to understand and believe in the Living Word and demonstrate Him in their daily lives." Throughout, the textbook is the Bible; the key word is grace; the focal point is Jesus the Messiah. To help God's people achieve this goal, CI offers four biblical narrative survey courses of varying depth. All Luther Seminary Students are able to take this training course for free this summer (normally $325) which allows the trained leaders to order materials and lead the studies in their home congregations.

Gordy will be taking two classes and attending Synod Assembly instead of taking the Crossways Training:

Exercises in Biblical Theology: A study of the Bible as a living Word that informs the imaginative framework through which we encounter the world and engage in Christian ministry. Through lectures, case studies, and field projects, students and instructors engage in doing biblical theology in the context of the practice of ministry, including such specifics as the care of souls, moral deliberation and action, community formation and conflict, evangelism and mission.

Psalms: A study of the Psalter that includes classification and analysis of the psalms, their place within the Bible and their theological significance. The course seeks to develop an appreciation of biblical poetry and provide tools for its interpretation. Consideration is given to the use of psalms in Christian ministry.

Pentecost – June 12, 2011

WEAR RED TO WORSHIP!!!!

Pentecost owes its origins to an ancient agricultural festival of Israel in which first fruits of the barley harvest were offered to God. Added to this background is the Jewish Festival of Booths, which recalls God's faithfulness as the Hebrews journeyed through the wilderness from Egypt to the Promised Land. Each year during this festival, the Jews made booths or temporary shelters in which to live for a week in order to remember their heritage.

The outpouring of God's Spirit took place during a celebration of this feast, enlarging its meaning for Christians. Luke describes the events of Pentecost in Acts 2:1-21. One hundred and twenty disciples were gathered to pray and wait for the promised Spirit, as Jesus had instructed them. Suddenly, the sound of a mighty wind filled the room, and tongues of fire appeared over the heads of the disciples, and all of them began praising God in different languages!

Pentecost is a day to be marked by fire, the color red, festivity and surprised, and a warm welcome extended to all.

Camp Tomah Shinga Quilt Auction will be held Saturday, July 9, 2011

Join in this exciting day at Camp Tomah Shinga for our 10th Annual Quilt Auction! The day promises good food, great fun and lots of beautiful quilts donated by friends of Camp Tomah Shinga. The auction and barbecue will be held rain or shine. Bring your friends and families!

Quilts will be on display by 9 a.m. The auction begins at 10 a.m. We will continue until all quilts are sold. The quilts will have numbered cards attached indicating the order in which they will be auctioned. This way bidders can approximate when their favorite quilts will be up for auction.

The cards also include information about the quilt donor and the size, type and design of the quilt.

Every quilt, newly quilted or antique, will be sold during our live auction with the help of our faithful friend Harold Mugler at Mugler Auction Services.

You won't want to miss the wonderful lunch with dessert and beverage served at 11:30 a.m.

You are encouraged to attend the Quilt Auction so you can see your quilts sold and possibly meet the buyers. If you or someone else from your congregation cannot attend, you may call the camp office at 1-888-656-6254 to find out how much your quilt sold for, or check online at www.tomahshinga.com. Please wait about one week after the auction so we have time to get the results entered into the computer and can then quickly access the information when you call.

A Pentecost Prayer

*God of wind and fire,
Send your Spirit upon us.
Make our hearts burn with love
For all your children.
Rekindle our gratitude for this feast
And for every good gift,
So that we always have a spirit
Of generosity
Towards everyone we meet.
Fill our lives with joy and our faith
With courage.
Through Jesus, who with you
Sent us the promised Comforter.*
